A great place to learn

Located on England's south coast, Portsmouth is a cosmopolitan city with some of the UK's best weather. Most University buildings are right in the heart of the city and everything you need is in easy reach. You will join a community that welcomes 5,200 international and EU students from around 150 different countries.

With courses designed to meet the challenges of the competitive global jobs market, you will be well prepared for a successful life after graduation. We are the UK's number one university for boosting graduate salaries (The Economist 2017).

As an international student, you may be eligible for one of our scholarships. Find out more at: port.ac.uk/global-scholarships

You have the flexibility to start a programme at a time that suits you with the new year courses available.

Application deadlines for February 2021 courses

We advise you to submit your application no later than the 1 December 2020 in order for us to process your application and to provide you with the best chance of starting with us in February. Ready to start? Visit port.ac.uk/apply

English language support

If you need to improve your English or just want to practise your language skills, we offer Pre-Sessional English courses to support you starting your degree in the new year. These courses start in October or November and you need to hold a valid offer for one of our February degree courses to be eligible for a place. Search port.ac.uk/pre-sessional-english to find out more.

International College Portsmouth (ICP)

If you are an international student who does not qualify for direct entry, you may be able to begin your pathway at ICP and graduate with a degree from the University of Portsmouth.

ICP is an embedded college to the University, centrally located on campus.

The undergraduate pathways at ICP starting in January include Accounting and Finance, and Business and Management.
