ECONOMICS AND POLITICAL SCIENCE

COURSE DURATION: 2 years

CREDITS: 120 ECTS

The Master's degree in Economics and Political Science (EPS) is a unique two-year program integrating advanced analytical tools in Economics, Political Sciences and Quantitative methods.

An international student and faculty body from around the world ensures lively exchanges and an interdisciplinary dialogue.

Participants can take advantage of double degrees and mobility agreements with several Universities worldwide.

Career prospects

Graduates of the Master's program in Economics and Political Science are actively employed. Half of them are based abroad and half in Italy. They work in multinational companies, banks and financial institutions, international organizations, media and the public administration. One third of graduates is pursuing a PhD, either in Italy or abroad.

Admission criteria

EPS is intended for top level international students with a strong interest in economics and political science. About 40 students are expected to enrol each year. Admission is based on academic excellence.

ENTRY REQUIREMENTS:

- 6 ECTS credits in Economics
