

be distinctive[®]

MORE INFORMATION

CONTACT

Fee-Paying Students: international-admission@em-strasbourg.eu
Exchange Students: sri-incoming@em-strasbourg.eu

A PLEASANT PLACE TO LIVE IN THE HEART OF EUROPE

©feasesen.fr - cover, © Fauxtographie / inside, © Jonathan Stutz - Fotolia, © Bartosch Salmanski - 128db, © phbez

Université
de Strasbourg

A PLEASANT PLACE TO LIVE IN THE HEART OF EUROPE

Strasbourg, well known for its international institutions and its gastronomy, has much to offer. Home of the European Parliament, the Council of Europe, the European Court of Human Rights and other European Institutions, Strasbourg promises a real taste of European political culture.

ALSACE IN A NUTSHELL

- One of France's most prosperous regions
- The famous Alsace Wine Route
- Beautiful picturesque villages
- Third region in France for its innovation momentum

THE MOST ATTRACTIVE CITY IN FRANCE

- European capital and headquarters of international institutions
- 3 international airports nearby (Strasbourg, Basel, Baden-Baden)
- 1 hour 46 minutes from Paris with the TGV railway networks
- 8 countries within a 500-km radius
- World famous Christmas Market
- Top cycling city in France
- A dynamic economy and many touristic features
- A great gastronomy

STUDENT LIFE IN STRASBOURG

Average monthly budget

Accommodations, food, transportation and outings: €750

Average rent in university residence halls

€200-€350/month for a room
€400-€600/month for a studio

Transportation

6 tramway lines with the monthly tramway/bus pass: €27.60/month for students under 26 years of age

Vél'Hop rental: €42 for 10 months*

*prices subject to change

Culture

- 1 opera house
- 11 museums
- 15 theaters and auditoriums
- 30 libraries and media libraries
- Plus an open sesame: the Culture Card included in the student card

CAMPUS LIFE AT EM STRASBOURG

Our 16 dynamic student associations offer a large selection of extracurricular activities. These are unique opportunities to get together with other students!

- Travel all over Europe with the International Student Association
- Get involved in humanitarian projects: renovate a Bolivian orphanage with the Humanitarian Association
- Take part in a ski trip with the Sports Association
- Relax during the integration weekend and have fun at the many parties organized by the Student Association

BEING A STUDENT AT THE UNIVERSITY OF STRASBOURG MEANS...

- Accessing a language center with 26 foreign languages offered
- Having access to more than 50 sports at the SUAPS sports center
- Benefiting from special rates for all cultural events in the city via the Culture Card
- Enjoying 31 libraries
- Eating at university restaurants (CROUS)
- Having access to university health services (SUMPS & CAMUS)
- Finding support at an office dedicated to students with special needs